YOUTH, SUBSTANCES AND THE DIGITAL WORLD

From Online Markets to Digital Streetwork

Social media is increasingly shaping drug markets, young people's exposure, and prevention measures across Europe.

This Flashlight combines scientific findings and practice-oriented digital streetwork to explore how professionals can respond effectively in the digital space.

Programme

Two short impulses (approx. 30 minutes each) followed by open discussion.

- 1. Youth encountering drug selling on social media – analysis & numbers. Telli Karacan, andnumbers.com (Denmark)
- 2. Digital Streetwork: reaching young people where they are. Birgit Tremel, Condrobs (Germany)
